

Rights and obligations of the Release

1. The release of Collection has a right: a) to take away or decline the materials of manuscripts; b) to take to general known, in thereby to place the article fully or partly in a network of the Internet on the web page of Collection and other informative resources; c) to use the metadatas (titke, name of author (legal owner), annotation, bibliographic materials and others like that) of the article in a way of dissemination and taking to general known, treatments and systematizations, and also pluggings into the international scientifically-metrical databases and informative systems; d) to keep and process the personal data of an author without limitation of term with the aim of their including to the database under the Law of Ukraine No. 2297-YI «About the protection of the personal data» from 01.06.2010 (last name, first name, patronymic; information about scientific qualification (scientific degree, scientific rank); information about place of work and position; pin data of authors; information about the presence of the printed works in the national and international databases of scientific literature with the aim of their further treatment for realization of searching operations in these databases).

2. The release of Collection has an obligation: a) to sign a corresponding form about the conflict of interests; b) to take measures in relation to the removal of any conflicts of interests in case of their appearing; c) to protect the rights of intellectual ownership of the authors of manuscripts; d) to accept all possible measures for warning of violation of copyrights by the third persons.